

Chaplain (Lieutenant Colonel) Todd M. Wolf

Wounded Warrior Chaplain
Joint Force Headquarters – National Capital Region /
U.S. Army Military District of Washington
Fort McNair, DC 20319

Chaplain Todd Wolf enlisted on 2 June 1983 and has since had two breaks in service. During the first break, he primarily served in criminal justice and some construction while a bi-vocational minister and student. The second break was only one year. During this time, he served as Deputy Director for his ecclesiastical endorsing agency.

He has earned a Bachelor of Science degree (Cum Laude) from North Central University-Minneapolis, a Master of Divinity degree (Summa Cum Laude) in Theology and Counseling from American Christian College and Seminary, a four-unit ACPE residency in Clinical Pastoral Education, a Certificate of Graduate Studies in American Government from Regent University, Board Certification with the National Association of Veterans Affairs Chaplains, and a Doctor of Ministry degree (with distinction) from St. Petersburg Theological Seminary.

He has served in all three components of the Army – principally in full-time roles. His assignments include Infantry Battalion Chaplain (1-12IN, 4ID); Battalion-plus Troop Command Chaplain (Engineers and Medical Evacuation Aviation [94TC, WYARNG]) while the State Yellow Ribbon Program Officer; Fires Brigade-plus Deputy and Camp Chaplain (115FiB, WYARNG); Senior Camp Chaplain (TF1-103, RIARNG); Fires Brigade Chaplain (115FiB, WYARNG) while simultaneously serving as the full-time Joint Forces State Support Chaplain and State Strong Bonds Program Manager (WYNG); Division Chaplain (104TD[LT], TPU-USAR); and as an Individual Mobilization Augmentee (IMA-USAR) assigned to the Operations, Plans, and Training Directorate of the Office of the Chief of Chaplains (CCH-CFP, 3/5/7, OCCH, DA). He has served on two tours in OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM and one tour in OPERATION NEW DAWN. These locations included Baghdad, Iraq; Ar Ramadi, Iraq; and Kuwait.

His awards and decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal with three oak leaf clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with four oak leaf clusters, the Iraq Campaign Medal with three bronze star devices, and the Army Staff Identification Badge.

A former Air Force Security Police (now Security Forces) NCO, he is a graduate of the Army Chaplain Officer Basic Course, the Chaplain Captains' Career Course, Applied Suicide Intervention Skills – Train the Trainer, a post-graduate residency and successive clinical utilization tour resulting in the Army Skill Identifier of Hospital Ministries Qualification (7R ASI), the Brigade Chaplain Qualification Course, the Command and General Staff Officers' Course (ILE), the Senior Unit Ministry Team Orientation Course, the Initial Strategic Religious Support Leader Course, and Air War College-Distance Education.

Chaplain Wolf is married to the former Lana M. "Michelle" Hernandez. Combined: they have eight adult children, multiple children-in-law, and nine grandchildren. Two of their children are currently serving on active duty in the Army (former Marine Corps) and the Air Force. One child and their spouse have been in full-time ministry for 12 years. All of their children are uniquely gifted and contributors to society.

Current as of 19 July 2019